ANNUAL MEETING

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

An excerpt from Let God Change You During Lent by Whitney Hopler (Crosswalk.com).

Keep a daily journal to record current ways God is working in your life.

Consider the discrimination that Christ suffered on earth, and ask God to show you the ways you discriminate against people who are different from you. Take some time to get to know someone who's different (perhaps someone from a different generation, culture, or economic status), and try to build a genuine friendship.

Become an advocate for justice. Contact your elected representatives in government and corporate executives to express your convictions on a topic that's important to you.

Simplify your life to care more responsibly for God's creation. Keep a record of what you purchase, then study it to determine why you bought what you did and how you can scale back to what you truly need. Recycle More, use less water and electricity, and eat less processed food.

Lent is a time for discipline, for confession, for honesty, not because God is mean or fault-finding or finger-pointing but because he wants us to know the joy of being cleaned out, ready for all the good things he now has in store.

An excerpt from Coronavirus: Four Ways to Pray (www.news.ag.org).

- ⇒ Pray we will be driven by faith and not fear.
- ⇒ Pray for the people who have been greatly impacted.
- ⇒ Pray for our missionary family and global partners.
- ⇒ Pray for hope, the Blessed Hope, of Christ.

And I'll rise up High like the waves
I'll rise up In spite of the ache
I'll rise up And I'll do it a thousands times again
For you For you For you For you
When the silence isn't quiet
And it feels like it's getting hard to breathe
And I know you feel like dying
But I promise we'll take the world to its feet
And move mountains We'll take it to its feet
And move mountains And I'll rise up
I'll rise like the day I'll rise up I'll rise unafraid
I'll rise up And I'll do it a thousand times again
For you For you For you For you
All we need, all we need is hope
And for that we have each other
And for that we have each other
We will rise We will rise

COMFORT ME O LORD

COMFORT ME IN SUFFERING

Loving God, I pray that you will comfort me in my suffering, lend skill to the hands of my healers, and bless the means used for my cure. Give me such confidence in the power of your grace, that even when I am afraid, I may put my whole trust in you; through our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

During these difficult times, many people are feeling the emotional effects of isolation as well as anxiety.

Please reach out to some one every day and be a spiritual buddy.

This may be the same person every day, such as an elderly relative or friend, or you may wish to choose a different person each day.

- Pray as the Holy Spirit directs you.
- Call an individual on the phone to give them encouragement. Ask them to pray with you OR offer to pray for them.
- Think about writing an old-fashioned letter, not just a short email or text message.
- If you are capable, there are individuals, especially in the elderly population, that need help with grocery shopping or other essential errands.

Gift of the Holy Spirit

The refrain of the song, Holy Spirit, goes like this:
Holy Spirit You are welcome here.
Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere.
Your glory God is what our hearts long for.
To be overcome by Your presence Lord.

The wizard [of Oz] says look inside yourself and find self. God says look inside yourself and find [the Holy Spirit]. The first will get you to Kansas. The latter will get you to heaven. Take your pick. — Max Lucado
